DETAILED ACTION

This is the first Office action on the merits of Application No. 10/041,586 filed on January 10, 2002. The amendment filed on April 18, 2003 has been entered. Claim 23 has been added. Claims 1-23 are currently pending.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of the species of Figure 2 (claims 1-11 and 23) in Paper No. 6 received on April 18, 2003 is acknowledged.

Claims 12-22 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in Paper No. 6.

Double Patenting

Claim 5 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 4.

Claim 7 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 6.

When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-11 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Each of claims 1 and 23 is believed to be inaccurate regarding the function of the clutches. As best understood the clutches per se do not transmit torque between the left and right output shafts. Rather the clutches serve to selectively brake the sun gear 19 or carrier 11 to the housing 20.

Claim 8 is correct only when the clutch CL is engaged.

The limitations of claims 8-11 regarding the relative speeds of the carrier and right output shaft and the left and right wheels are unclear, inasmuch as the recited function here is not a result of the clutch structure per se, but rather is dependent upon the combination of the clutches together with the gear arrangement which is not being claimed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

Art Unit: 3681

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-12 and 23 as best understood are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gustin '103 which shows an electromagnetic clutch structure including a first electromagnetic clutch 46 including the first coil 73 and a second electromagnetic clutch 45 including the second coil 55. The coils 55 and 73 are housed in a core 54, 72. First armature 75 is placed to the right of the core and second armature 57 is placed to the left of the core.

Claims 1-12 and 23 are further rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Okuma et al. '324. Note particularly Figures 1 and 4.

Applicant cannot rely upon the foreign priority papers to overcome this rejection because a translation of said papers has not been made of record in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55. See MPEP § 201.15.

Prior Art Citation

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Miquel '419, Obermark '747, Kuroda et al. '560, Tomari et al. '654 and Tajiri et al. '728 (JP) each show devices having first and second electromagnetic clutches.

FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION

Submission of your response by facsimile transmission is encouraged. Group 3600's facsimile number is (703) 305-3597. Recognizing the fact that reducing cycle time in the processing and examination of patent applications will effectively increase a patent's term, it is to your benefit to submit responses by facsimile transmission whenever permissible. Such submission will place the response directly in our examining group's hands and will eliminate Post Office processing and delivery time as well as the PTO's mail room processing and delivery time. For a complete list of correspondence not permitted by facsimile transmission, see MPEP 502.01. In general, most responses and/or amendments not requiring a fee, as well as those requiring a fee but charging such fee to a deposit account, can be submitted by facsimile transmission. Responses requiring a fee which applicant is paying by check should not be submitting by facsimile transmission separately from the check.

Responses submitted by facsimile transmission should include a Certificate of Transmission (MPEP 512). The following is an example of the format the certification might take:

I hereby certify that this correspondence is being facsimile transmitted to the Patent and Trademark Office (Fax No. (703) 305-3597) on _____

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate:

Art Unit: 3681

If your response is submitted by facsimile transmission, you are hereby reminded that the original should be retained as evidence of authenticity (37 CFR 1.4 and MPEP 502.02). Please do not separately mail the original or another copy unless required by the Patent and Trademark Office. Submission of the original response or a follow-up copy of the response after your response has been transmitted by facsimile will only cause further unnecessary delays in the processing of your application; duplicate responses where fees are charged to a deposit account may result in those fees being charged twice.
